

The International Beautiful Tall Buildings Challenge

Fillable Form

Specific Address/Coordinates: _____

Brief Description (50-200 words)

If known, the Project Developer/Architect (Optional): _____

Criteria Checklist

Objective	Criterion	Yes?	If No - How is the intent of the competition met?
The building is feasible and the representation is realistic	Existing building in an urban context
	The attached image is amateur photography or Google Street View. No architectural photography, special effects, special angles, special lighting.
The design approach applies to typical residential point towers	Residential use
	Height is approximately or generally between 20 to 50 storeys.
The design can be used in everyday circumstances	The design is not extraordinarily expensive
	The design is not so special that it cannot be used in more than one or two buildings in the same area.
	The design should look beautiful to the general public and enjoyable to look at .		